CHAPTER III

Club Membership

Article 7 The members will have the following categories:

- 1.) Provisionary
- 2.) Effective
- 3.) Minors
- 4.) Recreational
- 5.) Meritorious
- 6.) Honorary
- 7.) Retired

Provisionary members are all individuals whose application have been approved by the Board of Directors with favorable review of the Fiscal Committee and are waiting to be sworn in at a General Assembly. Nonappearance at the General Assembly without acceptable justification will imply loss of initiation fee. If the justification is acceptable, the applicant will continue to be a provisionary member until the next General Assembly.

Effective members are all individuals, both male and female, who meet the requirements in Chapter II, Article 5 after complying with the admission rules of these Bylaws with voting rights and able to be elected to different committees within the Club.

Minor members are the children and grandchildren of members in good standing from 0 to 17 years of age, inclusive, after approval from the General Assembly. They may attend General Assembly meetings but cannot vote or participate in official committees.

Recreational members are all non-Portuguese members who wish to frequent the bar for recreational or social gatherings after the approval of the General Assembly. They will not have the right to vote, cannot participate in General Assembly meetings or be elected to any committees.

Meritorious members are those individuals that have contributed to the development and progress of the Club through large financial support, materials goods etc., after approval of the General Assembly.

Honorary members are those individuals who have substantially contributed to the development and prestige of the Club and Portuguese community after the approval of the General Assembly.

Retired members are those individuals who have reached age 65 with ten (10) years of uninterrupted membership will be exempt from paying dues by right afforded by these Bylaws.

Application Fee: $25 (due at the time the application is submitted)

Annual Dues: $40 if paid by early payment deadline at the beginning of the year; $45 if paid after that deadline (due after the application is accepted and the individual is recognized as a member)
